Big Springs Cabin Rentals now available for public use

Fredonia, Ariz., May 7, 2015 — For Immediate Release. It's official! The North Kaibab Ranger District has seven cabins available at Big Springs as part of the Kaibab National Forest's cabin rental offerings, which are now available as part of the Arizona Cabin Rental "Rooms with a View" program.

Reservations must be made at Recreation.gov, and may be found by searching for "Big Springs Cabin Site, Kaibab National Forest, AZ." A complete listing of available amenities is available here. The rental rate is $65 per night per cabin. The cabins can be reserved from May 1 to Nov. 30.

The Big Springs cabin site is located approximately 30 miles from Fredonia, Ariz., on Forest Service Road 22, about an hour drive from the north rim of the Grand Canyon. The cabins are about a 35-minute drive from the Rainbow Rim Trail, a winding 18-mile hiking and mountain biking trail on the forest that offers stunning views from five scenic overlooks along the north rim of the Grand Canyon.

Individual cabins vary in occupancy from two to four people per cabin and include use of the shared shower house, fully furnished kitchen and dining hall. There are toilets on site but not in the cabins. There are no laundry facilities. Each cabin has two twin-size beds and one full-size bed. Please bring your own linens, towels, and pillows.
